OF THE
CITY OF NEW-YORK.

GEORGE the Second, by the grace of God, of Great Britain, France, and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, &c To all whom these present letters shall come, greeting :

J. Montgomerie, governor, 1730.

Whereas, on the twenty-second. day of April, in the year of our Lord one thousand six hundred eighty and six, Thomas Dongan, then lieutenant governor and vice-admiral of New-York and its dependencies, under our predecessor, James (the second) then king of England, &c. did make and execute a certain grant, or instrument in writing under the seal of the province of New-York, in these words following :

In hæc verb

Thomas Dongan, lieutenant-governor and vice-admiral of New-York, and its dependencies, under his majesty James (the second) by the grace of God, of England, Scotland, France, and Ireland, king, defender of the faith, supreme lord and proprietor of the colony and province of New York, and its dependencies in America, &c. To all to whom this shall come, sendeth greeting : Whereas, the city of New-York, is an ancient city within

And further, I do, by these presents, for and on the behalf of his most sacred majesty aforesaid, heirs, and successors, grant to the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty, that they and their successors shall and may forever hereafter, hold and keep within the said city, in every week of the year, three market days, the one upon Tuesday, the other upon Thursday, and the other upon Saturday, ^{days weekly} forever.

And also, I do by these presents, for and on the behalf of his most sacred majesty aforesaid, his heirs and successors, grant to the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty, of the said city, that they and their successors and assigns, shall and may at any time or times hereafter, when it to them shall seem fit and convenient, take in, fill, and make up, and lay out, all and singular the lands and ground in and about the said city and Island Manhattan's, and ^{Power to the Corporation to lay out their ground, and build, &c.} the same to build upon, or make use of, in any other manner or way, as to them shall seem fit, as far into the rivers thereof, and that encompass the same, at low-water mark aforesaid.

And I do, by these presents, for and on the behalf of his most sacred majesty aforesaid, his heirs, and successors, give and grant unto the aforesaid Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty, of the said city of New York, and their successors, that they and their successors, shall and may have, hold, and keep, within the said city, and liberties and precincts thereof, in every week in every year forever, upon Tuesday, one court of common pleas, for all actions of debt, trespass, trespass upon the case, detinue, ejectment, and other personal actions; and the same to be held before the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, or any three of them, ^{Power to hold a court of common pleas, on every Tuesday.} whereof the Mayor or Recorder to be one, who shall have power to hear and determine the same pleas and actions, according to the rules of the common law, and acts of general assembly of the said province.

And I do, by these presents, for and on behalf of his most sacred majesty aforesaid, his heirs, and successors, grant to the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty, of the said city of New-York, and their successors, that the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty, of the said city, and their successors,

Grant to the Corporation of all their former Franchises, shall have and enjoy all the privileges, franchises, and powers, that they have and use, or that any of their predecessors at any time within the space of twenty years last past, had took, or enjoyed, or ought to have had, by reason, or under any pretence of any former charter, grant, prescription, or any other right, custom, or usage, although the same have been forfeited, lost, or have been ill used, or not used, or abused, or discontinued, albeit they be not particularly mentioned; and that no officer shall disturb them therein under any pretence whatsoever, not only for their future, but their present enjoyment thereof; provided always, that the said privileges, franchises, and powers, be not inconsistent with, or repugnant to the laws of his majesty's kingdom of England, or other the laws of the general assembly of this province as aforesaid. And saving to his most sacred majesty aforesaid, his heirs, successors, and assigns, and the Lieutenants, Governors, and Commanders in chief, and other officers under him and them, in Fort-James, in or by the city of New-York, and in all the liberties, boundaries, extents, privileges thereof, for the maintenance of the said fort and garrison there, all the right, use, title, and authority, which they or any of them, have had, used or exercised there; and also, one messuage or tenement, next the City-Hall; and one messuage by the fort now in the possession of Thomas Coker gent. The piece of ground by the gate, called the Governor's garden, and the land without the gate, called the King's farm; with the swamp next to the same land by the fresh water; and saving the several rents and quit rents, reserved due, and payable, from several persons inhabiting within the said city, and Island Manhattan's, by virtue of former grants to them made and given, and saving to all other persons, bodies politic and corporate, their heirs, successors, and assigns, all such right, title, and claim, possessions, rents, services, commons, emoluments, interest in and to any thing which is their's (save only the franchises aforesaid) in as ample manner as if this charter had not been made.

And a house next the city-hall, and one near the fort, and the Governor's garden, King's farm, & swamp.

And all rents and quit rents reserved on former grants.

And further, I do appoint and declare, that the incorporation to be founded by this charter, shall not at any time hereafter do or suffer to be done, any thing by means whereof the lands, tenements, or hereditaments, stock goods, or chattels thereof, or in the hands, custody, possession of, any of the citizens of the said city, such as have been sett, lett, given, granted, or collected, to, and for pious and charitable uses, shall be wasted or misemployed, contrary to the trust or intent of the founder or giver thereof, and that such and no other construction shall be made thereof, than that which may tend most to advantage religion, justice, and the public reason of the variety of names, stiles, titles and incorporations aforesaid, and by reason that the before recited grant or instrument, dated in the year of our Lord one thousand six hundred and eighty-six, and the other grants and confirmations of divers governors, lieutenant-governors and commanders in chief, were made in the governors' own names respectively, when they should have been made in the respective names, stiles and titles of former kings and queens, our royal predecessors, under whom they were governors, lieutenant-governors or commanders in chief, respectively, and by reason, as some suggest and say, that the said city, or inhabitants or citizens thereof, never were well, regularly, or legally incorporated. and for want thereof, none of all the said grants, confirmations, instruments, or letters patent, herein before mentioned, could take effect or operate; and for divers other defects in all, some or one of the aforesaid grants, confirmafrom thence to run a line across the North River, so as to include Nutton Island, Bedlow's Island, Bocking-Island, and the Oyster Island to low water-mark, on the west side of the North River; and so to run up along the west side of the said river, at low water-mark, until it comes directly opposite to Bestaver's Killitie, or rivulet; and from thence to run to the north westerly corner of the West Ward, at four hundred foot beyond low water-mark; and from thence along the bounds of the said West Ward, till it comes to the south-westerly end thereof; and from thence, still along the bounds of the West Ward, through the street by the parade, and through Beaver-street, and New-street, to the place where the said South Ward began.

Bounds of the Dock Ward.

The Dock Ward, to begin at the middle of Wall-street, directly opposite to the middle of the north end of Broad-street, and from thence down through the middle of Wall-street until it comes to the middle of Smith-street; thence down through the middle of Smith-street to a place called Marten Clock's Corner, including the small street between the house late of the said Marten Clock and the Slip, and so to continue and run a line as the said small street runs, into the East River, four hundred foot below low water-mark, thence running westerly, keeping four hundred foot below low water-mark, till it comes to the bounds of the South Ward, and from thence along the bounds of the South Ward, up the middle of Broad-street, to the place where the said Dock Ward began.

The East Ward to begin at the north-easterly ^{Bounds of the East Ward,} corner of the Dock Ward, in the middle of Smith-street, and so run from thence up through the middle of the said street, till it comes directly opposite to the middle of the north easterly end of Golden-Hill street; and from thence to run down through the middle of the said street to the middle of the south easterly end thereof; and from thence to run through the middle of Rodman's Slip to the East River; and from thence to continue and run a line as the said slip runs, into the East River, four hundred foot below low water-mark; thence running westerly, keeping four hundred foot below low water-mark, till it comes to the south easterly end of the Dock Ward; and so along the bounds of the Dock Ward, up through the middle of Smith-street, to the place where the East Ward began.

The North Ward, to begin where the East Ward ^{Bounds of the North Ward,} begins, in the middle of Smith street, and so to run from thence through the middle of the said street so far as it runs, and so to continue a line, from the end of the said street, as the street runs, to the south side of the creek that runs from fresh water into the East River; and from thence running a north course till it comes to the bounds of the West Ward; and from thence running along the bounds of the said West Ward towards Spring-garden, and all along the rear of the houses fronting the Broadway, and so still along the bounds of the said West Ward, to the middle of Wall-street, where the West Ward runs across the same; and from thence down the middle of Wall street. along the bounds of the South Ward, and the Dock Ward, to the place where the said North Ward began, including in the same ward, the Powder-House, the City-Hall, and the Presbyterian Meeting-House.

Bounds of Montgomerie
Ward.

Montgomerie Ward to begin at the south-easterly corner of the East Ward, opposite to Rodman's-Slip, four hundred foot below low water-mark, in the East River, and from thence to run along the bounds of the East Ward, to and through the middle of Rodman's-Slip, and all through the middle of Golden-Hill street, till it meets with the boundaries of the North Ward, and the middle of Smith-street, and so along the bounds of the North Ward, through the middle of Smith street to the rivulet that runs from fresh water into the East River; from thence along the said rivulet so far as it goes, till it empties itself in the said East River; and from thence to run a south-east line, four hundred foot beyond low-water-mark, into the said East River, and from thence running westerly, keeping four hundred foot beyond low water mark, to the place where the said Montgomerie Ward began.

Out Ward.

The Out Ward to begin at the north-westerly corner of the South Ward, at low-water-mark, on the west side of the North River, over against Bestaver's Killitie or rivulet, and from thence to run up along the west side of the said river, at low water-mark, until it comes directly opposite to the river creek, or run of water, called Spyt den Duyvel, over which King's-Bridge is built; and from thence to run to the said creek, or river, to the Westchester side thereof, at low water-mark, and so to run along the said river, creek, or run on Westchester side, at low water-mark, into the East River, or Sound, and from thence to cross over to Nassau-Island, to low water-mark there, including Great-Barn-Island, Little Barn-Island, and Manning's-Island, and from thence along Nassau-Island shore, at low water mark, to the bounds of the South Ward; and from thence along the bounds of the South Ward, the Dock Ward, the East Ward, and Montgomerie Ward, to the place where the said Montgomerie Ward and the North Ward meet, at the rivulet that runs from fresh water, and so to run a North course as the said North Ward runs, till it comes to the bounds of the West Ward; and from thence along the bounds of the West Ward to the north-westerly corner thereof, at four hundred foot beyond low-water mark, near Bestaver's Killitie, or Rivulet; and from thence along the bounds of the South Ward to the place where the said Out Ward began.

New-York, from time to time to be held, and all and singular those things which to the office and offices of such clerk of the peace, and of the sessions of the peace, do and shall appertain, to do, act and execute ; and also, shall and may require, demand, take, accept, hold, keep, and enjoy, all fees, perquisites, and profits, which may to any such common clerk, clerk of the peace, and of the sessions of the peace, do or ought to belong. And we do hereby, give, grant, ratify, and confirm, for us, our heirs, and successors, unto our beloved William Sharpas, Gen. (one of the inhabitants of the city aforesaid) to be the present common clerk of the city of New-York aforesaid ; and also clerk of the peace, and of the sessions of the peace, for, and in the city and county of New-York, to continue in the offices aforesaid, during his life, and to act and execute the same offices and places by himself or his deputy. And we do further, for us, our heirs and successors, appoint, will, and direct, that the Governor or Commander in chief of the said province of New-York, for the time being, from time to time, and at all times, after the death of the said William Sharpas, when and so often as the office and place of Common Clerk of the said city shall happen to be vacant, shall and may appoint an honest and discreet man, being one of the inhabitants, and a freeman or freeholder of the said city, to be Common Clerk of the said city, during his good behaviour ; and so as often as such case shall happen. And we do further, for us, our heirs, and successors, will and grant, that so often as the said office shall be vacant, the

And take all fees belonging to those offices.

Mr. William Sharpas appointed common clerk, and clerk of the peace and sessions of the peace.

Upon his death, the Governor to appoint another, who shall execute those offices, during his good behaviour.

As often as the office of clerk be vacant the common council to appoint one, who shall continue therein till another be appointed by the Governor, and sworn.

Common Council of the said city, for the time being, shall and may appoint one other honest and discreet citizen, being an inhabitant and freeman, or freeholder of the said city, to be Common Clerk of the said city, and Clerk of the said Court of Record, in and for the said city; and Clerk of the Peace, and of the Sessions of the Peace, in and for the said city and county of New-York, to act and execute the said offices, and who shall and may execute, do, and receive, all and whatsoever to the said offices, and every of them, belongs, or shall belong or appertain, till in his room, another honest and discreet person, being an inhabitant and freeman, or freeholder of the said city, shall be appointed into and for the said offices, by the Governor or Commander in Chief of the said province for the time being; and shall have taken such an oath as is hereby directed for every such person so to be appointed, to give and take; and so from time to time, and so often as the case may or shall so happen.

Eight attornies appointed for the Mayor's court, during their good behaviour.

And further, we do hereby constitute, name, and appoint, James Alexander, Joseph Murray, John Chambers, William Smith, George Lurting, William Jamison, Richard Nicolls, and Abraham Lodge, gentlemen, to be the present attornies, and each of them to be an attorney of and in the said court of record, for and during the good behaviour of each of them respectively: And we do hereby, for us, our heirs, and successors, grant and ordain, that no other attorney or attornies, person or persons whomsoever, (besides the afore-named attornies, during the time that they shall all remain attornies of the said court) shall be permitted or suffered to practice as an attorney of or in the said court; but all and every other attorney and attornies, person and persons (besides the before named attornies, during the time aforesaid) from being an attorney or attornies of or in the said court, and from all practice as such, shall be, and are and each of them is excluded and debarred. And we do hereby, for us our heirs, and successors, give and grant unto the said Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of the city of New-York, and their successors for ever, that the Mayor of the said city, for the time being, or his deputy, or the Recorder, and any three or more of the Aldermen of the said city for the time being, or any four or more of them, (whereof we will the Mayor, or his deputy, or the Recorder of the said city, for the time being, to be one) shall and may (by and with the consent and approbation of our Governor and Commander in Chief for the time being) have full power and authority, all or any of the before named attornies of the said court, and all or any other of the persons, hereafter to be appointed or admitted attornies of or in the said court, for their or his evil behaviour, in their or his said duty or office of attornies, or an attorney of or in the same, or his or their being thereof legally convicted from being attornies, or an attorney of or in the said court to amove, displace, and forever exclude; and after the amoval or death of any two

And no other attornies to practice there

The Mayor, deputy Mayor, recorder, and any three or more Aldermen, or any four or more of them (the Mayor or or his deputy, or recorder to be one) may, with consent of the Governor or commander in chief, for the ill behaviour of the attornies, and on lawful conviction, remove them. And after the amoval or death of two, upon the amoval or death of any other of them to recommend others to the Governor or commander in chief in their room; who when approved of shall be admitted in the Mayor's court.

or more of the before named attornies, upon the amoval or death of any other of the attornies before named, or hereafter to be admitted, to recommend one other person to the Governor or Commander in Chief of the said province of New-York for the time being, for his approbation, in the room of such attorney so dying, or being removed; each of which persons, so to be recommended, and approved of, as aforesaid, shall and may be admitted and sworn an attorney of, and in the said court; and so often as the case shall happen.

And no person not recommended & approved shall be permitted to practise after the death or amoval of any of the before named attornies.

Number of attornies forever to remain six.

Provided nothing be construed to hinder his majesty from prosecuting, or defending, by his attorney general, nor to hinder the attorney from practising as council in any civil cause.

And we do further, for us, our heirs, and successors, grant and appoint, that no other attorney or person whatsoever, shall, after the death or amoval of any of the before named attornies, be admitted or suffered to practise as an attorney of or in the said court, but what shall be recommended and approved of as aforesaid. And further, we do, for us, our heirs, and successors, grant, will, and ordain, that the number of attornies of the said court, shall not at any one time after the death or removal of any two or more of the before named attornies, forever hereafter exceed the number of six: Provided, that nothing herein shall be construed to extend to hinder us, our heirs, or successors, from prosecuting or defending, all or any suits, causes, actions, or prosecutions, in the said Mayor's court, by our attorney or solicitor general for our said province, or the attorney or solicitor general of us, our heirs, or successors, for the said province, for the time being; nor to hinder the attorney or solicitor general of us, our heirs, or successors, for the said province, for the time being, to practice in the said court as council in any civil cause.

And we do further of our especial grace, certain knowledge, and meer motion, for us, our heirs, and successors, grant, appoint, and direct, that the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, of the said city, for the time being, and each of them, from time to time, and at all times, forever hereafter, shall have, by these presents, full power and authority to have and take cognizance of, and to hear, try, and finally determine, with or without a jury, all pleas, suits, controversies, and trespasses, wherein the value does not exceed the sum of forty shillings, in such manner as they or either of them shall think or judge to be agreeable and according to equity and good conscience; and for the more due proceeding herein, it shall and may be lawful for them or either of them, to administer an oath to the plaintiff or defendant, and also to such witnesses, as shall be produced by each party, if they the said Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, or either of them think fit; and in case either of the parties, plaintiff or defendant, shall not perform such order, judgment, or decree, as the said Mayor, Recorder, or Aldermen, for the time being, or any one of them, shall make or set down, then it shall and may be lawful for them, or any one of them, to commit such party or parties to any prison of or in the said city, there to remain until he, she, or they, perform such order and every marshal of the said city for the time being, is hereby commanded and authorised to ex-

Power to the Mayor, recorder and Aldermen, and each of them, to determine all causes with or without a jury, where the thing in demand shall not exceed 40s.

And to administer an oath to plaintiff and defendant and their witnesses.

And if either party refuse to comply with the decree of them, or any of them, that they or any one of them may commit such party to prison till performance.

Every marshal to execute their or either of their precepts.

And every gaol keeper to receive and in custody, &c. such party or parties who shall not comply with such decree and be committed.

Sheriff, clerk and all subordinate officers to be obedient to and to attend upon the Mayor or recorder & Aldermen, and to execute their command.

execute all and any the summonses, precepts, and commands, of them the said Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, or any one of them, made, issued, or given in about, or concerning, such suits, pleas, controversies, and trespasses, or any of them, as shall be to him directed; and every keeper of the gaol for the city of New-York, for the time being, is hereby commanded and authorised to receive, and safe keep, in his gaol or custody, all such parties so committed or to be committed to the prison he shall be then keeper of, until he, she, or they, shall perform such order accordingly.

And we do, for ourselves, our heirs, and successors, by these our present letters, require, and strictly charge and command, and fully empower, the sheriff, common clerk, chamberlain, marshal, gaol keepers, high constable, petty constables, and all other subordinate officers, of and in the said city, now chosen, elected, constituted, or appointed, or that hereafter may be chosen, elected, constituted, or appointed, and every of them respectively, jointly, and severally, as cause shall require, to be obeisant and obedient to, and attend upon the said Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, of the said city, and every or any of them, at all times hereafter, according to the duty or obligation of their respective offices and places; and to execute all and every the commands, precepts, warrants, and processes, to them respectively directed and issued, and given out, and to be issued and given out, by them the said Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen, or any one of them.

And we do further, hereby will, declare, and ordain, that before the Mayor, deputy Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Assistants, Assessors, Sheriff, Coroner, Common Clerk, Chamberlain, High Constable, and Petty Constables, of the said city, such of them as are hereby appointed and named, and all and every such as hereafter are to be appointed, elected, or chosen, shall, before they be respectively permitted to execute their respective offices or places aforesaid, respectively be sworn as follow, to wit: The hereby named Mayor of the said city, and every other person, hereafter to be appointed to or for that office, to take the proper oath as such, and well and truly to execute the office of Mayor, and all other offices and places, hereby appointed for each Mayor to execute and act in, and the usual oath of a justice of peace, before the Governor or Commander in Chief of the said province of New-York, for the time being, in presence of three or more of the Aldermen of the said city of New-York, for the time being; or, in case of the absence of the Governor or Commander in Chief, for the time being, then before the oldest counsellor of the said province, for the time being, in the presence of three or more of the Aldermen of the said city for the time being.

And we do hereby, for us, our heirs and successors, give and grant full power and authority to the Governor or Commander in Chief of the said province, for the time being, in the presence of three or more of the Aldermen of the city aforesaid, for the time being, or in case of the absence

TO AMEND THE CHARTER
CITY OF NEW-YORK.

PASSED APRIL 7, 1830.

The people of the State of New-York, represented in Senate and Assembly : Do enact as follows—

1. The legislative power of the Corporation of the City of New-York, shall be vested in a board of Aldermen, and a board of Assistants, who together shall form the Common Council of the City.

2. Each Ward of the City shall be entitled to elect one person to be denominated the Alderman of the Ward, and the persons so chosen, together shall form the board of Aldermen ; and each Ward shall also be entitled to elect one person to be denominated an Assistant Alderman ; and the persons so chosen, together shall form the board of Assistants.

3. The Aldermen and Assistant Aldermen shall be chosen for one year ; and no person shall be eligible to either office, who shall not at the time of his election, be a resident of the ward for which he is chosen.

4. The annual election for Charter Officers shall commence on the second Tuesday in April, and the Officers elected shall be sworn into office on the second Tuesday in May thereafter ; and all the provisions of law now in force in regard to the notification, duration, and conduct of elections for Members of Assembly, and in regard to the appointment, powers and duties of the inspectors, holding the same, shall apply to the annual election of Charter Officers.

5. The first election for Charter Officers, after the passage of this law, shall take place on the second Tuesday in April, one thousand eight hundred and thirty-one ; and all those persons who shall have been elected under the former laws regulating the election of Charter Officers, and shall be in office at the time of the passage of this law, shall continue in office until the officers elected under this law shall be entitled to be sworn into office.

Power to direct special election.

6. The board of Aldermen shall have power to direct a special election to be held, to supply the place of any Alderman whose seat shall become vacant by death, removal from the city, resignation, or otherwise ; and the board of Assistants shall also have power to direct a special election to supply any vacancy that may occur in the board of Assistants ; and in both cases, the person elected to supply the vacancy, shall hold his seat only for the residue of the term of office of his immediate predecessor.

Meeting of the board and their duties.

7. The boards shall meet in separate chambers, and a majority of each shall be a quorum to do business. Each board shall appoint a President from its own body, and shall also choose its Clerk and other officers, determine the rules of its own proceedings, and be the judge of the qualifications of its own members. Each board shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and the doors of each shall be kept open, except when the public welfare shall require secrecy ; and all resolutions and reports of Committees which shall recommend any specific improvement involving the appropriation of public monies, or taxing or assessing the citizens of said city, shall be published immediately after the adjournment of the board, under the authority of the Common Council, in all the newspapers employed by the Corporation : and whenever a vote is taken in relation thereto, the ayes and noes shall be called and published in the same manner.

Power to expel, &c.

8. Each board shall have the authority to compel the attendance of absent members ; to punish its members for disorderly behaviour, and to expel a member, with the concurrence of two-thirds of the members elected to the board ; and the members of expelled, shall, by such expulsion, forfeit all his right and powers as an Alderman or Assistant Alderman.

9. The stated and occasional meetings of each board of the Common Council, shall be regulated by its own ordinances; and both boards may meet on the same or on different days as they may severally judge expedient. Occasional meeting

10. Any law, ordinance, or resolution of the Common Council may originate in either board, and when it shall have passed one board, may be rejected or amended by the other. laws ordinances and resolutions may originate in either board

11. No member of either board shall, during the period for which he was elected, be appointed to, or be competent to hold any office, of which the emoluments are paid from the city treasury, or by fees, directed to be paid by any ordinance or act of the Common Council, or be directly or indirectly interested in any contract, the expenses or consideration whereof are to be paid under any ordinance of the Common Council; but this section shall not be construed to deprive any Alderman or Assistant of any emoluments or fees which he is entitled to by virtue of his office. prohibition of, members to hold office.

12. Every act, ordinance, or resolution, which shall have passed the two boards of the Common Council, before it shall take effect, shall be presented, duly certified, to the Mayor of the City, for his approbation. If he approve, he shall sign it; if not, he shall return it with his objections to the board in which it originated, within ten days thereafter; or if such board be not then in session, at its next stated meeting. The board to which it shall be returned, shall enter the objections at large on their journal, and cause the same to be published in one or more of the public newspapers of the city. Mayor's veto Method of proceeding, &c.

13. The board to which such act ordinance, or resolution, have been so returned, shall after the expiration of not less than ten days thereafter, proceed to re-consider the same. If after such re-consideration, a majority of the members elected to the board shall agree to pass the same, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other board, by which it shall be likewise re-considered; and if approved by a majority of all the members elected to such board, it shall take effect as an act or law of the Corporation. In all such cases the votes of both boards shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against the passage of the measure re-considered, shall be entered on the journal of each board respectively.

14. If the Mayor shall not return any act, ordinance, or resolution so presented to him, within the time above limited for that purpose, it shall take effect in the same manner as if he had signed it.
